Village Attorney's Report.

TO HON. JOHN B. PAGE,

Pres. of the Village of Rutland:

The only suit brought against the village since my last report is the case of Parker and wife, which is for an injury received by Mrs. Parker by reason of the alleged faulty construction of one of the cross-walks on Merchants' Row. It was decided by the county court in favor of the village but is now pending in the supreme court. This case, together with the suit of Welch and wife, after having been heard by the supreme court here in town, were ordered to the general term at Montpelier for reargument.

The suit of Carbory Carroll against the village was heard at the last term of the county court and resulted in a verdict for the village.

The chancery suit in favor of the Aqueduct Company against the village is in statu quo, the complainant being anxious to discontinue on payment of cost by the village.

A suit in equity has been brought by the village against Darius Caruth of Mendon, to enjoin him from throwing or allowing the saw dust and waste to escape from his mill into Mendon river, and a temporary injunction has been granted therein.

The case of Mrs. Cain was heard before the commissioners last summer, who allowed her three hundred dollars for the water diverted by the village.

W. C. DUNTON,
Attorney for Corporation.

Rutland, April 13, 1883.

ORDINANCES

VILLAGE OF RUTLAND.

It is hereby ordained by the Village of Rutland as follows:

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The trustees shall hold meetings monthly, at some convenient place, on the evening of the first Monday of each month for hearing complaints for violations of the by-laws and ordinances of the village, and for the transaction of other business.

The duties of the trustees shall be those specified and enumerated in the act of incorporation now in force; they shall in their discretion grant licenses for all purposes for which a license is required under such regulations as may be established by said village; they shall regulate the locating, construction and use of hav-scales, markets, slaughter-houses, blacksmith shops, foundries. victualing saloons, billiard saloons and bowling alleys, and the erection of dwelling houses and other buildings, so as best to provide for the safety of the village; they shall restrain, remove or abate nuisances, attend to the cleaning, building, constructing, maintaining, grading and repairing of the streets, highways, walks, alleys and lanes of the village; build and keep in repair such number of reservoirs as in their judgment is necessary for the safety of the village; light the same; restrain horses, cattle, sheep, swine and other animals from going at large; provide for the planting and preserving of shade and other trees and for the care, preservation, and improvement of public grounds and parks.

SEC. 3. The trustees shall in no year expend a greater sum of money for improvements in said village, or otherwise, than is raised by a tax, or otherwise legally voted by said village in such year, including all moneys received by such village for highway taxes, fines and licenses. All trustees violating this section by expressly assenting to such expenditures shall be jointly and severally liable to said village, in an action of assumpsit for money had and received, for all excess of expenditures made by them, over and above such sum of money as is raised as aforesaid.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the trustees to prosecute to final judgment all violations of the act of incorporation and by-laws, and ordinances in force, unless settled as hereinafter provided, whenever any one of the trustees is notified of the same. This by-law shall not be prohibitory of any person other than the trustees prosecuting for such violations, provided that such person before any such prosecution is commenced shall give sufficient security to the trustees to indemnify said village against all costs that may be recovered against such village in such prosecution.

SEC. 5. A majority of the trustees shall have power to settle any violation of the by-laws and ordinances, for a less sum than the penalties annexed thereto, whenever in their opinion a respect for the laws can be maintained and the circumstances of the case shall warrant it; and it shall be their duty to account to the treasurer for all sums received by them respectively for any violation of any of the by-laws or ordinances or any penalties incurred by the charter.

Suc. 6. It shall be the duty of the trustees at their first meeting succeeding their annual election, to appoint a street commissioner who shall have in charge the building and repairing of all streets and sidewalks in the village, the purchasing of materials, and procuring labor, under the direction of the trustees, and he shall keep a correct account of all materials and labor furnished, price paid for each, and where expended, and he shall at all times have the books ready for inspection by the trustees or any one of them. Said street commissioner shall be liable to be removed at any time whenever the trustees shall deem it advisable, and when so removed, the trustees shall appoint another in his place.

SEC. 7. The street commissioner shall keep an account in full of all expenditures made by him, where, when and for what expended, to whom all moneys are paid, how much to each individual, naming him, and for what purpose.
